• This Sounds Feasible

I'll bet you a long 'Scotch'
that this is O.K.

Could Levi be a brother to Pamelia?
That strikes me as the more likely set up. Grand ma would thus be justified in saying Uncle Tchabod.

PUBLIC ARCHIVES OF CANADA

Ottawa, March 20, 1942.

Mr. W. R. Freeman,
Brighton, Ont.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 12th instant, I may say that the names of Benjamin and Azor Bettes appear in the list of Loyalists, Audit Office, London, England. They were both from the province of New York and came to Canada in 1783. They both belonged to DeLancey's Brigade. David and Ephraim Bettes also served under the British flag during the American Revolution. Here attached is a copy of the claims made by Benjamin and Azor Bettes for losses sustained during the American Revolution.

Nothing could be found however, regarding the family names Jenks and Richmond.

Yours truly,

Director
Information Division

Census Return, 1851, WHITBY township, Ontario county.

Case of Azor Betts, late of New York.

Claimant says he came to this province in May, 1783. He was in physical line. Went up the river 3 weeks; continued there that summer & the ensuing winter. Sent by Capt. Vand; had no opportunity before - did not hear of it before.

He is a native of America. Settled in New York in the practise of physician. From the first declared in favour of British government. Was confined by a Committee for carrying Intelligence on board the Duchess of Gordon & Asia and for attempting to spike same at King's Bidge. Was banished to OESOPUS BY the Provincial Congress. He returned to New York. Was confined again. Made his escape just before New York was taken. Got to the British & came in with them. Was made a Surgeon of Queen's Rangers by Gen'l How; was afterwards suspended with many other officers. Had a warrant as a Captain's Lieut. in the King's American Rangers. He recruited men in consequence of this warrant. Went to Morrisina as surgeon. Was tried for carrying intelligence to the enemy & sentenced to death, and was lying in gaol under the sentence as the British troops came. Was in possession of a house in New York jointly with Capt. Purdie.

Ely Freeman of Boston Government aged 25 years, says that he is a ten monthsman, and has been quartered at Castletown since May last, that there are 400 men there under the Command of a Lieut. Colonel Fletcher, all engaged Likewise for ten months, and belonging to the State of Vermont. That every four days Scouts were sent out of Six or Seven men towards Crown Point and the Narrows, and their their Orders were to observe the shipping, and endeavour to take a prisoner ... Before he left Vermont, he heard it talk'ed as if that state was to be neuter, but has seen no appearance of it since - That he likewise heard of an expedition going on from Albany towards this Country...

Terediah Blackman Serg. born at Stratford in New England aged 38 years, says, that he was taken prisoner in 1777 on Lake Champlain, and remained in Canada till Summer 1778, when he went on Board a Private Ship as a Sailor, was taken by a Rebel Privateer and carried to Portsmouth in New Hampshire... That he has been now two months at Castletown as a ten monthsman belonging to the state of Vermont, under the Command of Lieut. Colonel Fletcher - That they sent out Scouts every three or four days to Crown Point, the Narrows and Mount Independence, that they never sent any nearer Canada than Crown Point; this last consists of a Serg. and Six, and the other two of a Corporal and three men each - that the orders of those Scouts are to watch the motions of the shipping, and to endeavour to take a Prisoner likewise should they meet with a party not too strong, to attack them - he further declares that he understood during the Spring, that there was to be an accommodation between the State of Vermont and Canada, but does not know the reason why they send out Scouts and Partys, if they are serious in coming to an accommodation, that to him it appeared somewhat strange that they should act so that the troops under Colonel Fletcher at Castletown are about 300 men all engaged for ten months, and that the private men are kept very ignorant of everything they are about, but that they are to remain at Castletown 'till the expiration of their ten months, that every Township sends provisions for their own men, and that a number of townships have lately joined the State of Vermont.....

Mr. W. P. Freeman,
Brighton, Ont.

Dear Mr. Freeman,
Many thanks for your letter of Jan. 27, your note of Jan. 27, your note of Jan. 27.

Many happy returns to you.

I should tell you that I received a letter from Frances Shelley Wees, together with application for membership from her husband. This last I approved without delay. It will come up at the next meeting, which is in Belleville in March. In a letter enclosed, a considerable amount of data on the Wees generations, in spite of your influence and my involvement, which has persisted in maintaining the attitude that her husband's family came from the Weese family of Amherstburg. Some replies to her, pointing out my feelings on the matter, with which you are familiar, to wit: blurb to be continued in 200

1. There were two Wees, viz. Loyalists. Recommended for 500 acres.
a. John, of Ernesttown (see list of Ernesttown, 7 pages, 1784.)
b. John, of Fredericksburg (see ditto of Fredericksburg, 6 ditto).
2. John Wees made claims for loss of property:
Land Book A, June 1797. Abigail Mahon, praying for lands as the daughter of Lieut. Bettys, deceased. Recommended for 200 acres.
b. John, who joined Burgoyne in 1777. Recommended for 200 acres.
3. David, of Ernesttown, son of John, of Ernesttown, was father of Ezra, who made application for land as son of U. E. L. 22 Mar. 1801, by Mr. Keeler.
4. Two different women by name of Wees, with their children, are mentioned in the new regulations, if none has been secured to him as a settler under Mr. Keeler.
a. Anna, or Hannah, wife of the John who joined Burgoyne.
b. Mary, wife of the John, of Jessup's Rangers. (Referred to His Excellency).

I invited the lady to drop in here some time when she was passing, so I could put her right on the mix-up. Evidently she is a person of strong convictions, even if they are wrong.

Land Book Petitions in Upper Canada, 1803, page 14, Levi Bates.
ditto 1804, page 673, James Bates.
ditto 1807, Wm. Bates.
We look for numerous Northumberland applications, seeing that Mr. Young sent you five forms, and I added another six. Do not waste them, for they are in short supply. We hope to have a new form out shortly.

I have been sorting out my Bettes papers, and as far as I am concerned, there seems to be sufficient material to make one suspect that the Bettes of your country belong to Joe, the hanged one. From what you say in your letter, Abigail Batts, whose husband was hanged by the rebels, had her name put on the U. E. List by the Executive Council. Can you supply the date for this action? If so, I should appreciate a copy. If not, the Provincial Archives might supply it. Abigail was without doubt Joe's wife. In addition, the following is of importance:

- Land Book C, 14 June, 1797. Abigail Mahon, praying for lands as the daughter of Lieut. Bettys, deceased. Recommended for 200 acres.
ditto 28 Feb., 1798. Jeremiah Beaty, praying to be confirmed in 600 acres in Cramahe which he was permitted to locate by Mr. Keeler and also 100 acres on the Carrying Place. Recommended for 200 acres, under the new regulations, if none has been secured to him as a settler under Mr. Keeler.
Land Book B, 5 July, 1796. Jeremiah Bettis (Referred to His Excellency). Ordered 400 acres, as desired, in Murray.

U. E. Supplementary List

Betts, Benjamin, Soldier Loyal Rangers.

There is also a claim for loss of property for this Benjamin. He is listed as of Saratoga, N. Y. Province. Joined Burgoyne in 1777, came to Canada, served as volunteer in Dr. Adams' Company, and afterwards in Jessup's. Resided at Chaleur Bay in 1787. No mention of Joe's hanging. He may have been a brother of Joe.

In New York City Library, manuscript room, I found the original list of confiscated property in N. Y. State, as made by the Americans. In this are these Betts, Bettices:

			14 June
Bettice, John,	Ballstown,	Albany County,	yeoman,	indicted 28 1781,	judgment
			signed 15 July,	1783.
"	, Joseph	do	Albany County,	yeoman	do do do do

And, finally, this from Reid's Index of Sons & daus. of U.E.
 ----- Batty, of Haldimand Township, married Mary, daughter of Andrew Loyst, of Fredericksburgh, and his wife, Elizabeth, dau. of Isaiah Bartley, U.E. She received 200 acres by Order-in-Council 1 Feb., 1826.

It is my suggestion that application be made to Provincial Archives, Toronto, as to original wording of the various applications for land by these people. You might get a very important clue.

I think your idea of correspondence between members re their problems is an excellent idea. I am surprised to find that, in some instances, they have been doing some really original research. For instance, I had one lady in Picton who claimed descent from a Wm. Hudgin, of Pr. Ed. Co. who had come from New Brunswick about 1800. I had no way of confirming it, so I put it all back in her lap. Then, a little later I came across another application from Napanee which had Hudgin in the line. So, I suggested that they write to N. B. for information. As a result they now both are members. I am also encouraging members to send me any additional material for inclusion in their family file. It has worked in many instances. The only thing wrong is the matter of keeping up such a correspondence (I mean the type I am doing). Your idea would be very valuable and enlightening where two or more members had the same ancestor. I think, too that your so-called Boston Transcript, besides containing queries, should broadcast appeal for any genealogical information re Loyalists to be copied and kept at a central point, for the benefit of all. Let's keep your idea in view, and let's spring it when the branch becomes a bit older and more adult.

Now about the 'Mad March.' I have just looked into some material I copied in Ottawa Archives years ago. In those people who, under the command of Jessup, joined at Crown Point in Nov. 1776. It seems most likely to me that Jessup was given authority to recruit before the Mad March, and that the date Nov. 4, which I found, may have been the day they were mustered and prior to commencement of the march, and that it took them 3 days to reach Crown Point, i.e., 7 Nov. How does that sound? I do not have a copy of the MS called 'Detail of Tory Information dated Jan. 1777, at least I do not recall any such paper. I am definitely interested.

You are a member of the Investigating Committee, together with myself, Erle Denyes, of Belleville, and Claude Young. I have so far 10 applications to pass on by this committee. If bus connections are suitable, I hope that you can come to Belleville March 6. The committee hopes to meet in the Shire Hall at 6.30 sharp, then attend the meeting at 8. If you can come, I extend you an invitation to dinner with self and spouse at 5.30 or 6.00. How about it?

Shall be looking forward for word from you.

Yours sincerely,

Brighton, Ont.
Jan. 27/57

Dear Petrus:

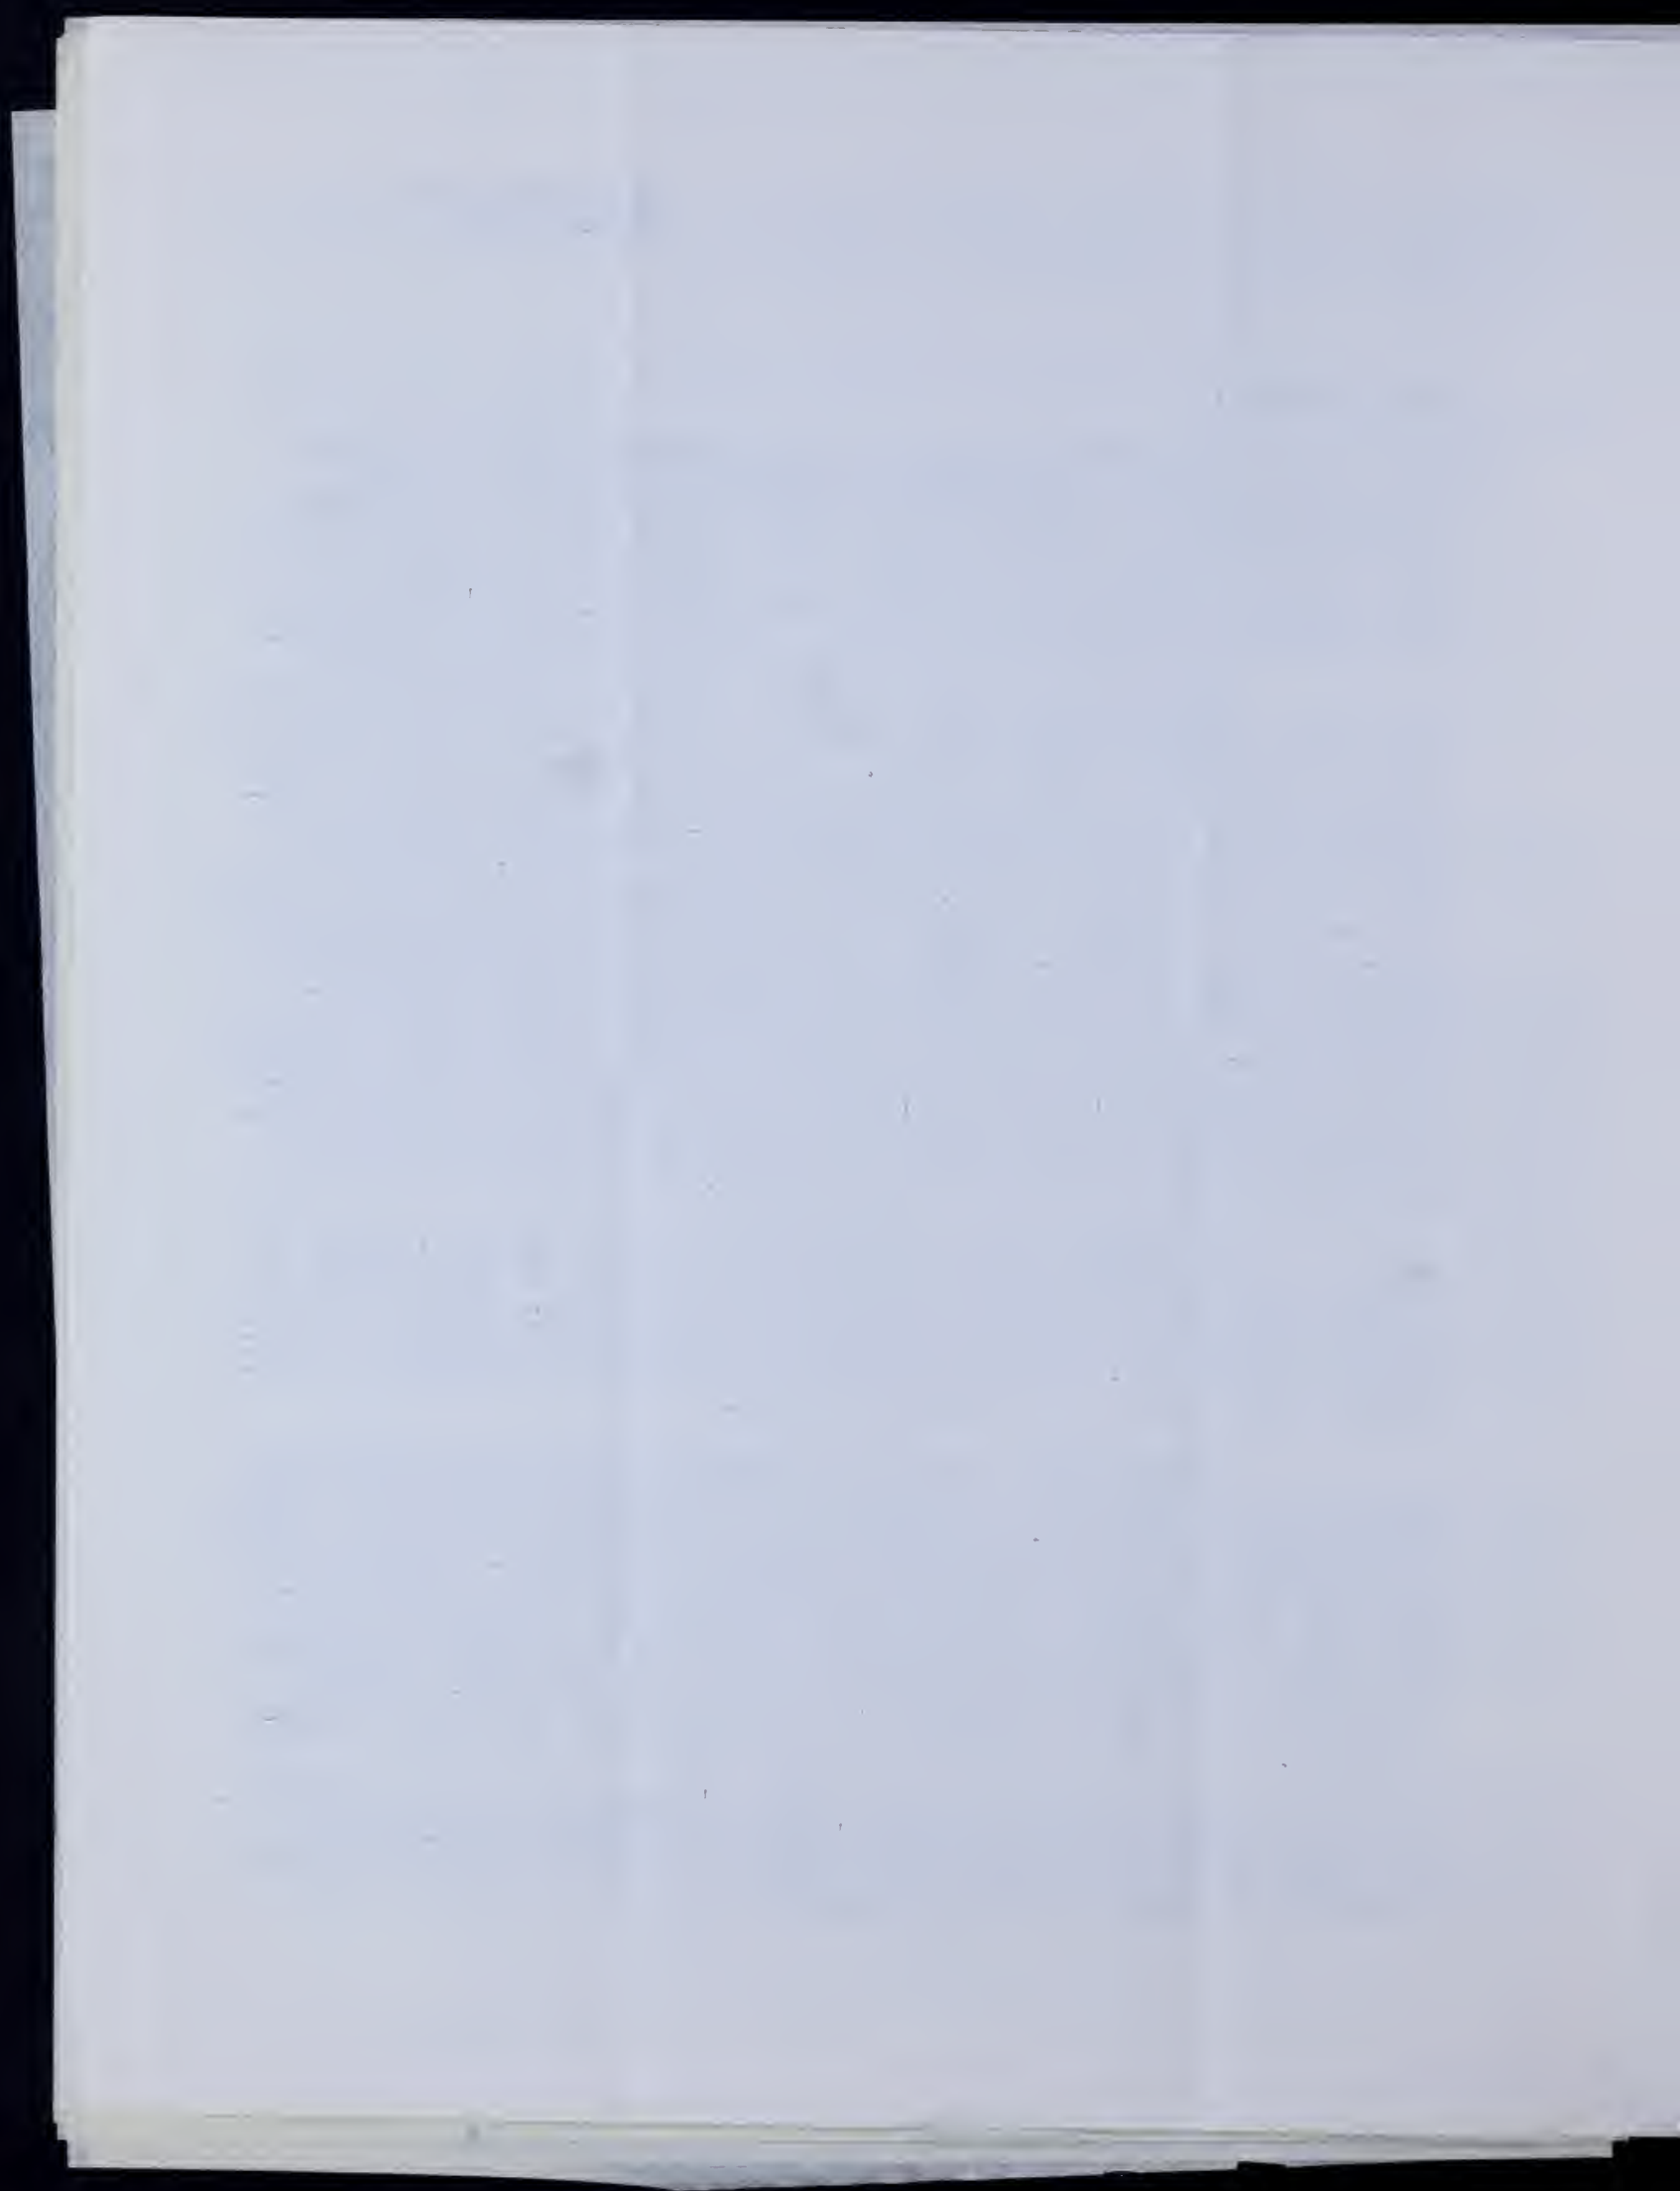

This being my natal day and having just finished my seventh letter, I decided to continue the good work and clear the deck for next week. I can visualize you (trying to solve some family quirk), John with Duke taking a pot-shot at the cat, Cynthia concentrating? on a magazine, and Dorothy just sitting down after coming home from St. John's, and the TV foremost in the minds of all. A very comfortable picture.

My letter to Mrs. Wees is ready to go forward with the form and the suggestion that she follow your advice and fill in the additional information. You may not care to credit me with a brilliant mind, but the last time I wrote to her, I explained that she was in the wrong Wees-coop, Ameliasburg, and that her husband was from the Ernesttown family. John, jr. of Ameliasburg with a dau. Julia, undoubtedly being named after his mother, Julian, did not look much like the John and Mary set-up of Ernesttown. Then, too, with all the land references by the children of John (2nd) to Ernesttown was so obvious. To-day, I dug out your file and went through your version of the set-up- so I was not far off the track. From your analysis, I sent the land grants in Ernesttown which showed the proximity of the Rogers' and Wees' families. That alone should convince her, for she was keen to know where David was located. You will likely hear from her shortly.

If either you or Miss Allison will, please, send me about six application forms, Peter, I can use them. Canon Jones is my next victim- through the Van Horns. His brother was a member in Toronto, and the Canon wishes to join. I asked him yesterday. I have written my brother in Moncton, N. B. to-day and asked if he cared to join.

Claude Young sent me the membership list, thanks to you, and I note he has an article in the Ensign this week with my name as a contact. He asked for some Spencer material which I happened to have and which I hope he is helped. I have not yet had time to make out my own form to appear in better detail as I promised, but shall look after it shortly, I hope. You know how it is: you have your mouth open to say something and have to hold it open till you hunt for an hour. Verily, a sin visited on the children's children from our loyal forefathers.

What do you think of this: 'Battes, Abigail, her husband was hanged by the rebels.' Names inserted on U.E.List by order of E. Council? Would that not make the Bettis family Loyalists? What is the E. Council?

When I do get my Rogers' record in shape for your fyle, I shall let you have what I have on the Williams' and Wees' family backgrounds. Or do you intend to place the application of Dr. Wees in that fyle by itself? I have asked Claude Young about one of the Mordens listed, for it might be possible that I can get a bit more on the Williams' family, since Anne Williams married Richard Morden in 1790, and it is most likely that Anne was the dau. of John Williams. It is a try, anyhow. You said, too, that you would like to have a copy of the will of William Rogers. That, too, my dear fellow, shall be included. I may not get all these things done this year! But I hope to.

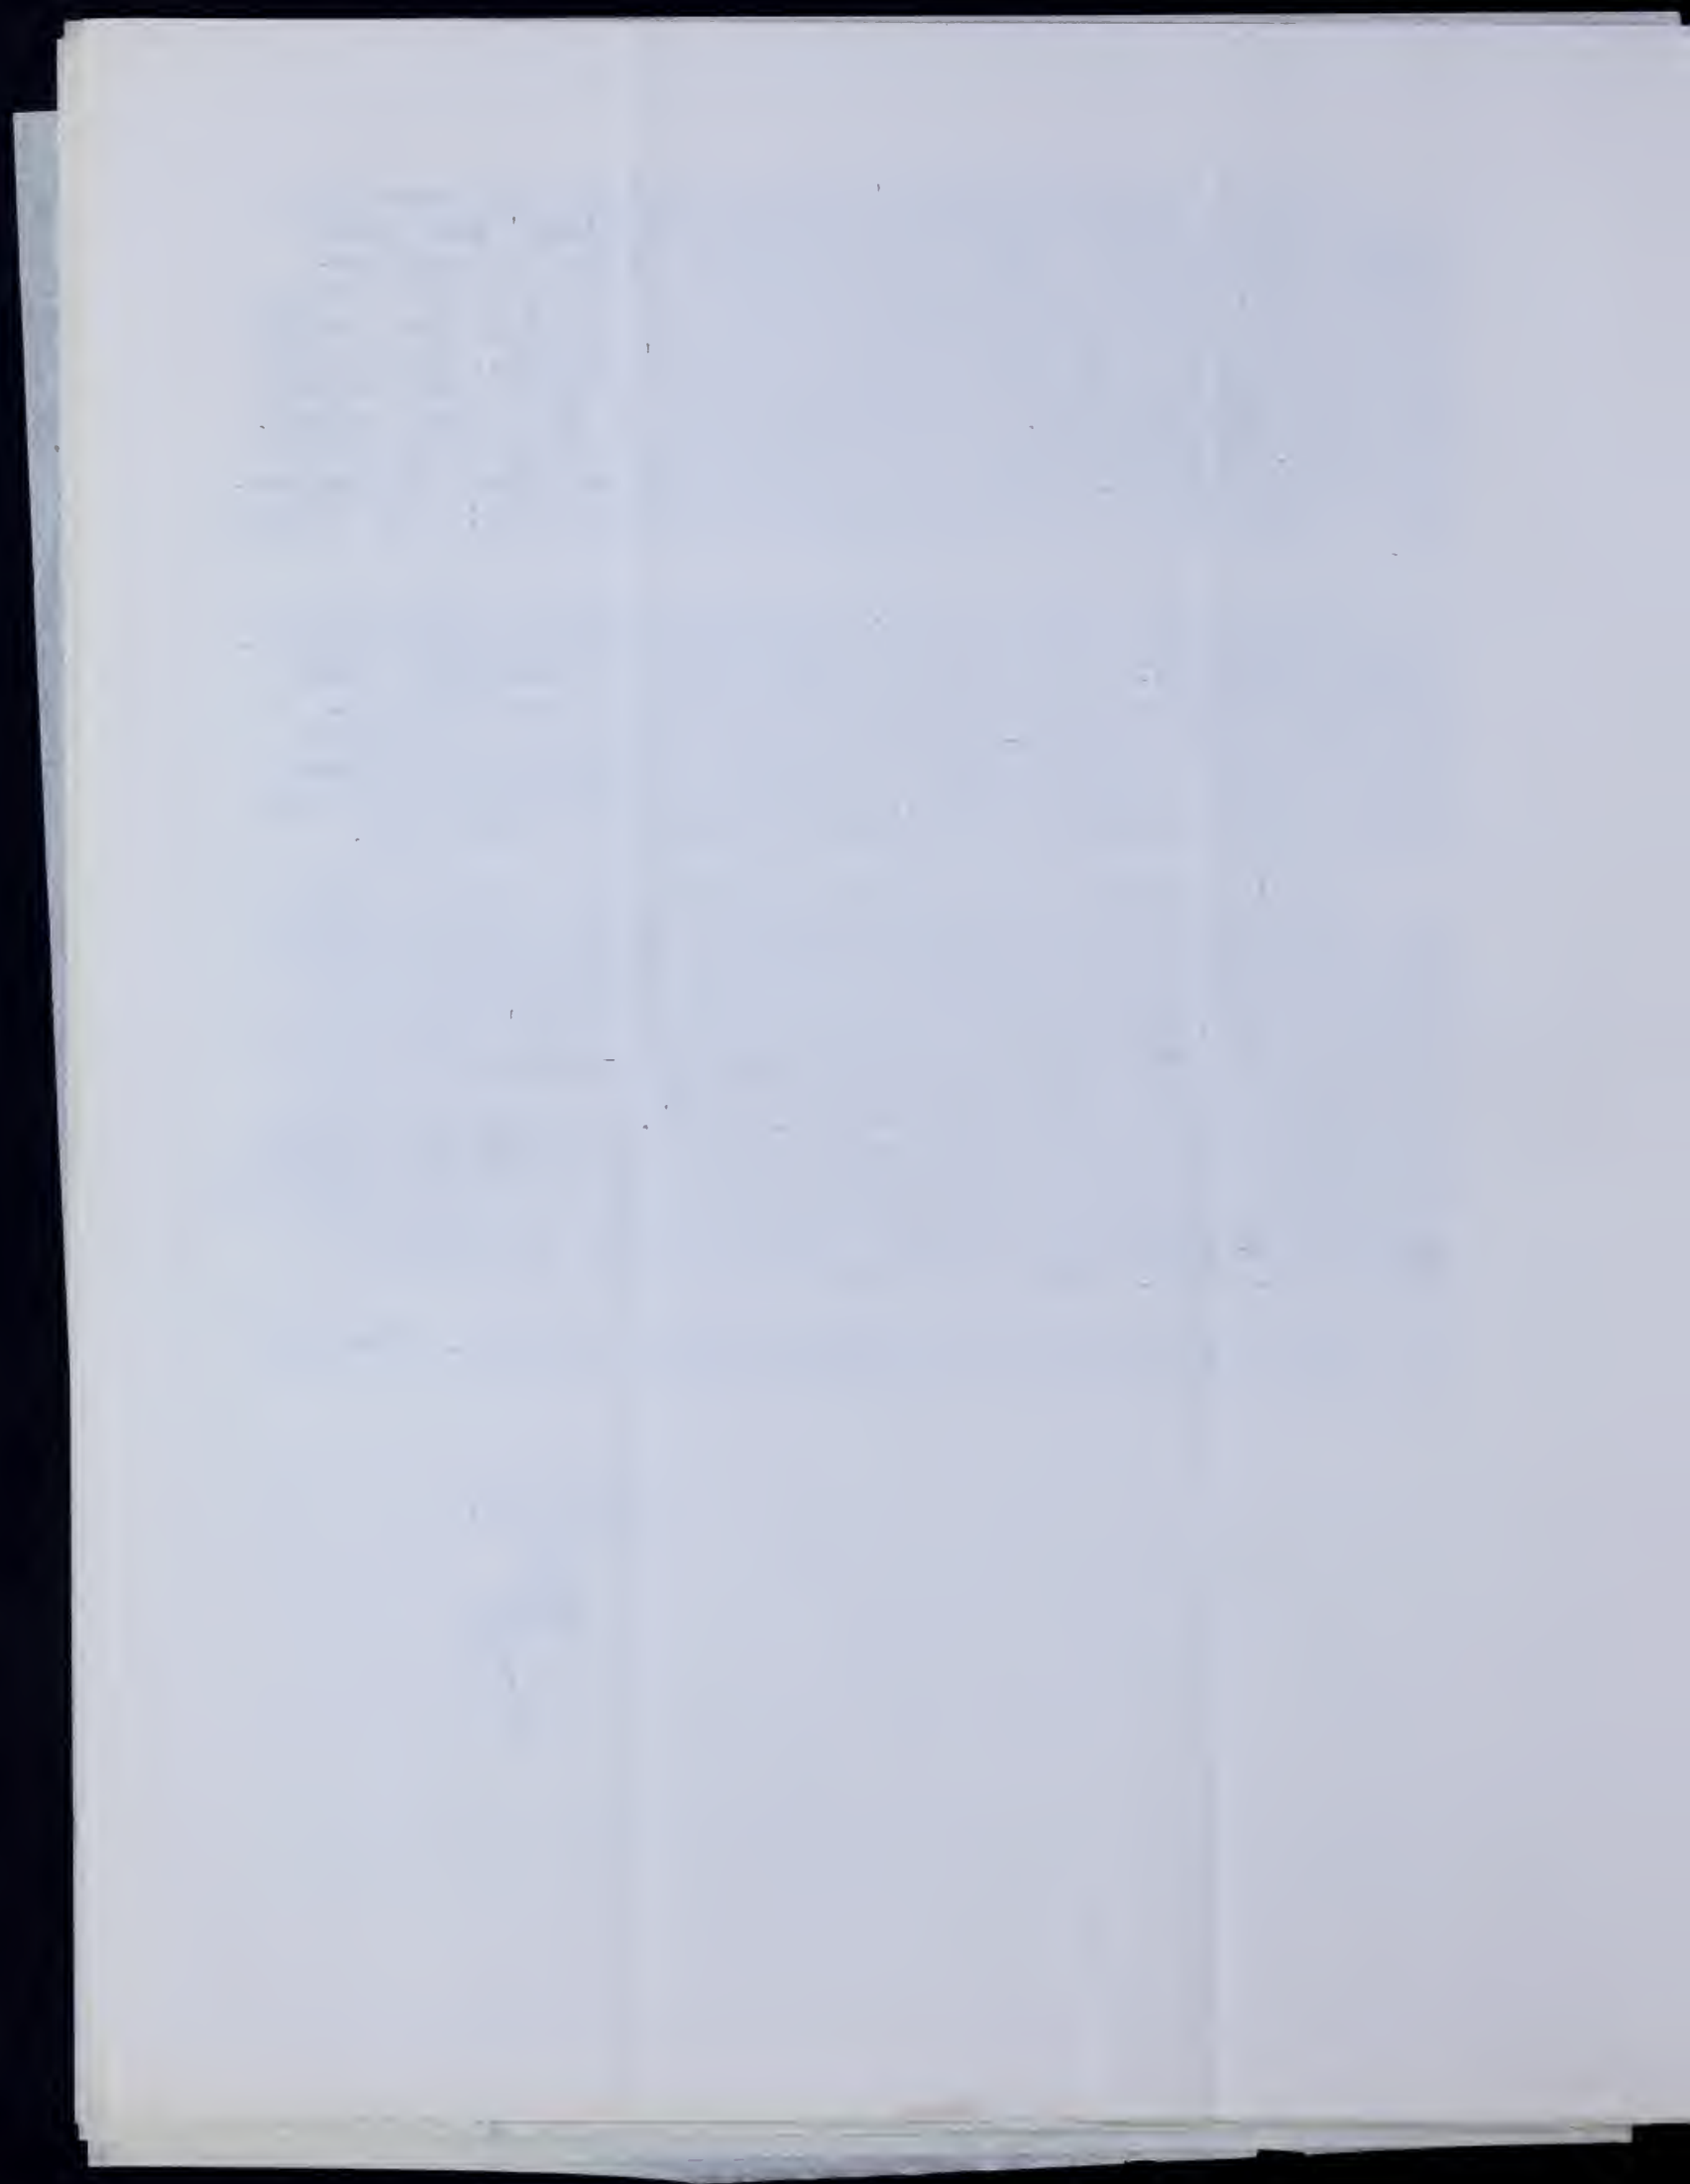

What do you think, Peter, of members corresponding with other members for material that might materially assist in completing records? As you know, throughout the country, there must be bibles or other records that many of us could use. In fact, I had a brain-wave that later, when the Association is well on its feet, to have something like The Boston Transcript queries among members. Do you not think that some such idea could be managed with profit to members? More anon.

Here's another (if you get me going again, which I must if I write that book, you must expect a barrage periodically): You may recall that the 'Mad March' north from Saratoga began in late October and the party of some 81 enlisted at Crown Point on Nov. 4th, 1776. I have not seen Jessup's Papers; so it must have been from you that I have this- 'About 80 went in a party through the woods and wilderness to join Sir Guy Carleton at Crown Point on Nov. 7th, 1776'. Do you agree that the difference in the dates may be due to the fact that Rogers as a scout went ahead with others to protect the main party and, therefore, arrived on the 4th? Feasible? No? I have a note under this- Manuscript called 'Detail of Tory Information dated Jan. 1777. Have you a copy of this?

One more letter to write before horae somnibus. Keep up the good work, but do not neglect writing

Sincerely,

Ray

Richmond Family

Sylvester<sup>5</sup> Richmond (Cyrus<sup>4</sup> John<sup>3</sup> Edward<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Sheltonington, Conn., June 4, 1737 and died June 1803-4. He married Jane Boardman (sic). They resided in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1772 but removed to Ernesttown, Frontenac County, Canada in 1795. He was a Quaker and was dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Revolutionary Party, sympathizing with the Mother Country. He suffered considerably on account of his Tory proclivities, and went to Canada, where he lived many years between Kingston and the head of the Bay of Trinity (sic). He was imprisoned at Poughkeepsie - whether for religious scruples or political offences is not known.

Children:

- 945 Cyrus<sup>6</sup> born Jan 6, 1769; married firstly, Lois Bradley, secondly Nancy Martin.
- 946 Ichabod<sup>6</sup> born 1772; married Pamela Bettes. (she b. 1782-3 in U.S.)
(He came to Can 1795 at 23 yrs of age. She then 12-13 yrs old)
- 947 Phoebe<sup>6</sup> (likely marr. about 1799)
- 948 Lydia<sup>6</sup> married John Burleigh (she born 1775)
- 949 Abigail<sup>6</sup>
- 950 David<sup>6</sup> born in 1785; married Mercy Ray.
- 951 John<sup>6</sup>, married Dorothy Richardson.
- 952 Jane<sup>6</sup>

Mark. Gine Families

Mrs. Laura Owen, step-daughter of Harry Betty, wrote a letter dated Feb. 26, 1953, stating that Harry died in 1922. She thought that his grandfather was William. Harry had a half-brother William, a brother Ariam, and sisters Chloa & Melissa.

Harry had a son, Frank, who died in 1946

A Surrogate Court Record of Saratoga County, N.Y., of 1804 relates that Huldah Rosebush, children of William Betty, dec., as well as other brothers & sisters, were beneficiaries to the will of their father, Joseph Betty, of Ballston, N.Y. Another brother's children (Joseph) were included in this. Joseph became disgruntled during the war due to what he claimed was unfair treatment when he went over to the British cause. He was arrested as a British spy, convicted and hung in Albany, N.Y. in 1782. Joseph Betty & sons were listed in the 1790 census, name then spelled Bettis.

William Betty, a brother of Huldah (Betty) Rosier (Rosebush), was one of the founders of the Burnt Hills Baptist Church in 1791 in Ballston, N.Y. William died before 1804

It appears that Samuel Rosebush's first wife was Huldah Betty, second wife Huldah Clark. Outside of Anna Gruber there is confusion as to his children

Dr Burlingh.

Jan 29, 1977

Would you please send me a copy of Samuel Sherwoods Account Book 1784-1819. I have enclosed a cheque for $6.50 which includes $1.00 for mailing. Let me know if this covers it.

Jeremiah Beatty (Bettes) who is mentioned in three spots, is my grandfather four times removed, who settled in <sup>(petition)</sup> 1791 and 1802 at Cramahs CI-L8. His son Hezebeiah took over when he died in 1816. I would appreciate any advice you could give me on tracing them. Joseph Beatty who was hung in 1782 at Albany as an English spy was Jeremiah's brother. Both came from Balston, New York. How do I check out the Balston origin? Do they have a historical society I can check with. (Hezebeiah married Martha Orser, and we are intermarried with quite a few Quinte families, such as White, Smith, Harnden, Montgomery, Ferguson, DeBroot, Campbell, Collins, Maw, Harris, Collins, Hammond, Way, Werden, Johnson, Vincent, Reynolds etc.

I have an unbroken line completed from Jeremiah to my son, and am trying to trace further back. My son is the eighth generation from Jeremiah, and the twelfth generation from Aert Willemssen (1648 New York) the Orser ancestor.

Did you know that the Ontario Archives in Toronto have census and tax rolls from the year 1802 for Cramah and Brighton. They are filed under tax rolls, but the census is also included. They cover the years. 1802, ~~1803, 1804, 1805~~ to 1825, 1839, 1840, 1841, 1842, 1848, 1850. I found my family on the very first census of 1802. You might pass this on to others as it appears most people I have met do not know about it. (It lists head of family, adult males, adult females, males under 16, females under 16, occupation, date settled, religions, (aggregate census.)

Hope to meet you sometime this year when I attend U.E.L. Quinte or O.G.S. Kingston meetings when weather permits. Good hunting.

Thanks for now.

Just a brief note to thank you for Sherwood's Account Book with its many references to my family. Well worth the money. Thanks for the leads on the other books. They were both a mine of Better information. I purchased Loyalist Spy and got Frontier Spies from the library. They filled in so many gaps, locations, times, etc. that I was more than pleased. I discovered Joe Bettys father was an Lunkeeper at Ballston and they arrived there in 1771 from Stamford, Connecticut. I am getting further back all the time.

The Ontario Archives are going to film all the records at Brighton, Ontario so this information will soon be available to everyone.

Thanks again - Good Hunting
